

EMMA MARCEGAGLIA

Chair and Chief Executive Officer of Marcegaglia Holding

Deputy chair and CEO of Marcegaglia Steel and subsidiaries operating in the steel processing sector.

Chair and CEO of Marcegaglia Investments, the holding company that controls the Group's diversified activities.

After graduating with honours in Business Administration from the Bocconi University in Milan, she attended the International Management Program-Master in Business Administration at the New York University.

Alongside her constant commitment in the company, she embarked on a career path that led her to hold - in many cases, first woman in history - several important top management positions. Among the main ones are:

- president of Confindustria (2008-2012), the first woman to be elected president and the youngest in the association's then almost 100-year history (Confindustria was founded in 1910).
- president of Luiss, Libera Università Internazionale Studi Sociali Guido Carli (from 2010 to 2019, again the first woman to hold the post).
- president of Business Europe, the association representing European Confindustrias, a role she held from 2013 until 2018, renewed for two terms (the maximum possible) and the first woman to hold the position.
- president of Eni (from 2014 to 2020), appointed by the Italian government to lead a public company, the first time for a woman.
- president of B20: appointed by the president of Confindustria. Again, a first for a woman. In parallel with the Italian presidency of the G20 (in 2021, a first for Italy), Confindustria, as the sole organiser representing Italian companies, was tasked with managing and coordinating the G20 Business Summit (B20), the G20's most influential engagement group.
- president of B7: in 2024, still at on the recommendation of Confindustria, she was appointed president of B7. At the same time to the Italian presidency of the G7, Confindustria, again as the sole organiser representing Italian companies, had the task of manage and coordinate the G7 Business Summit (B7), the most authoritative engagement group of the G7.

She is a member of the Executive Committee of BIAC, the OECD advisory body, of the European Round Table for Industry (ERT) and of the Global Advisory Council of Bank of America Corporation; deputy chair of ISPI, Italian Institute for International Political Studies; she sits on the Boards of Directors of Bracco Spa, Gabetti Property Solutions, Prysmian Spa, Campari and Eni.
